

Ashok Jindal

ashok.jindal@email.com

(555)123-4567

Bowersville, OH

Summary

Professional and highly trained engineer with 5 years of experience in creating engineering solutions to complex manufacturing problems. With senior engineering roles, led single-source development teams and implemented lean principles and tools.

Education

Bachelor's Degree in Engineering

Dalton University Orlando, Florida

Skills

Azure, Communication Skills, Microsoft Office, Linux, Agile, C++, Apis

Experience

Jablito Industries

June 2019 - Present

Engineer - Orlando, Florida

- Researched a new metric for tracking project performance and success, resulting in a 10% increase in projects completed
- Performed installation of software and hardware in accordance with specifications
- Increased the efficiency of the company's server environment by 42%
- Established and maintained a database of all hardware components and software necessary for proper system operation
- Maintained detailed knowledge of all project deliverables and contributed to the company's digital and print media by creating television commercials, radio spots and web content

Arrow

October 2017

Test Engineer - Orlando, Florida

- Performed quality assurance and testing of applications, ensuring they meet or exceed requirements
- Utilized automated test tools to reduce regression testing by 30%
- Improved application performance by 20% through increased utilization of database indexes and stored procedures
- Developed training materials to provide technical support to new employees on the use of the software

- Provided technical support for 11 clients, increasing revenue by 20% and increasing customer satisfaction by 25%
- Troubleshooted intermittent computing issues, and provided technical support for 12 clients, resulting in a 50% increase in client retention rate

Infra Tech

June 2016

Program Engineer - Orlando, Florida

- Began developing a new software application by analyzing the problem, gaining a full understanding of the product and determining the best possible solution
- Implemented new software development practices, such as agile product management
- Facilitated software testing, integrating 20 new features into the system in 3 months
- Established strong relationships with executives and the QA team, resulting in a 40% increase in new customers and a 25% increase in sales